RUM AT ROME.

Pulle a War Wagedat Our Northern Sub-Mensch Refused a Betail License-Gorstp.

The people of Rome City have been entirely captured by the holy influence of repeated assemblies and sin is foreign to the population, who, however, are sometimes disturbed by the Fort Wayne people. .The inhabitants of Rome City are awiully opposed to the sale of liquor there and the town council have refused to license but one saloon in the village. to license but one saloon in the village. Henry Mensch, proprietor of the Sylvan Lake house, and a former citizen of Fort Wayne, has been refused a retail license and was compelled to close his bar saem doors, which sided materially to mash tain his hotel. Mensch and others hold a government license and others hold a government license and others and are beginning to do a lead office business. A saloon has been fitted up at Reund Lalend and the fire water flows freely to thirsty pleasure seekers who ask for it. This enrages the Rome City people, who make all sorts of thrests against the forbidden fraffic. A day or two ago a party went to the Sylvan Lake house to protest against the sale of liquors by Mr. Mensch under a government license. The colored waters of the house bounced the invaders and a terrific fight ensued, which was continued until the negroes had to retreat from the city to avoid being dynched by the populace, who were caraged beyond control. Now they propuse to dump the Round Liand saloon into the lake and we fear Fort Wayne topers will have to carrytheir own liquor with them hereafter. Henry Mensch, proprietor of the Sylvan

You advised placing Allock's Porous plasters, in dyspessis, on the pit of the stomach; in ague cake, on the spleen; in torpid liver, over that organ; but I really think you should also recommend that one or two plasters be put over the kidneys. They stimulate, strengthen and set as powerful diuretics, thus casting out many poisonous acids and salts. I have had fever and ague. All remedies I took produced little or no effect until I put an Allock's Porous plaster over each kidney; their action being more thandoubled, the melaria was quickly washed away. I have also had several attacks of rheumatism and two of gout, and by applying the plasters over the local pain rheumatism and two of gont, and by applying the plasters over the local pain and also over the kidneys, I again found your plasters wonderfully effica-
